Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	All WellSpan entities follow WellSpan policies and procedures regarding grant projects to ensure that the use of grant funds are consistent with WellSpan's commitment to endeavor to improve the health status of the communities that we serve The WellSpan foundations are supporting organizations and substantially all of the grants and other assistance they make furthers the exempt purposes of their "supported organizations", each of which are exempt affiliated organizations within the WellSpan Health system Because the supported organizations identify the projects and exempt activities that will be funded by the foundations' grants and other assistance, and because there is a cross-over between the respective governing bodies and management of the foundations and their supported organizations, the foundations are able to effectively monitor that the grants they make are used for their intended purposes
