Part III, line 4:

One painting in the collection, done by Les Kouba for the organization, is hanging in the organization's building. The other pieces of artwork were donated to the organization, had been on display, but currently in storage.

Part V, line 4:

The Society's endowments consist of two funds: one fund established and restricted by a donor to provide support for student scholarship, educational programs for students, and the general support of the educational programs; and another fund established in the year ending June 30, 2018 consisting of unrestricted net assets designated for endowment by the Board of Directors. As required by generally accepted accounting principles, net assets associated with endowment funds are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

Part X, Line 2:

The Society is organized as a Minnesota nonprofit corporation and has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3), qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi), and has been determined not to be a private foundation under Section 509(a)(1). The Society is annually required to file a Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax (Form 990) with the IRS.

In addition, the Society is subject to income tax on net income that is derived from business activities that are unrelated to its exempt purposes. The Society has determined it is not subject to unrelated business income tax and has not filed an Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return (Form 990-T) with the IRS.

The Society believes it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken affecting their annual filing requirements, and as such, do not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements. The Society would recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits and liabilities in income tax expense if such interest and penalties are incurred.
