Return Reference	Explanation
Part I Additional Information	Part IV Section D Question 1 -Copies of the organization's governing documents in effect f or the year ended June 30, 2018 were provided to Stetson University's president by the las t day of the fifth month. The President of the University will receive a copy of the Form 990 by the last day of the tenth month. The Stetson Business School Foundation was formed in 1972 to support the Stetson University School of Business Administration and as such ha s a historic and continuing relationship.

990 Schedule A, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Section D, Line 2 Organizaition Maintained A Relationship with Supported Orgs	As of fiscal year ended June 30, 2018 the University's CFO, recommended by the President of the University, was elected a board member of the Foundation. Additionally, some of the Foundation directors are on the Accounting Board of Advisers to Stetson University and The Family Enterprise Center Board of Stetson University. The Foundation also currently has three Stetson School of Business Administration Faculty members on its Board, including the Dean of the Stetson School of Business Administration. In addition to the current faculty two retired Stetson School of Business Administration Faculty members serve on the Foundation Board. Two of the Foundation board members have previously served consecutively as Vice President of Finance for the University. The Bylaws have been amended to include Article IV, Directors, "that an officer, trustee, or director of Stetson University will be one of the Directors of the Business School Foundation to be recommended by the President of Stetson University and voted on by the board of directors. In the event this individual is not selected, the standing board of directors shall request that the President of Stetson University provide an alternate and the process shall continue until a nominee is selected."

Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Section D, Line 3 Role The Organization's Supported Orgs Played	Generally 20% of the revenue of the Foundation comes directly from a charitable trust managed by SunTrust Bank as Trustee. The Stetson Business School Foundation sets the general guidelines for the investments but SunTrust Bank as Investment Manager makes the actual investment decisions. Currently the Treasurer of the Foundation is a faculty professor with the authority to approve grants to faculty and students and distribute scholarship funds to the University. Requests for faculty research and travel support and student support are first approved by the Dean of the School of Business Administration or his designee. Student scholarship recipients are recommended by the Stetson University School of Business Administration faculty and/or the Stetson University Office of Financial Planning.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part V Explain How Integral Part Test Satisfied	The Stetson Business School Foundation provides scholarships and grants to the Stetson School of Business Administration student-scholars and business professors attending and working at Stetson University School of Business Administration. The students and professors are chosen by Stetson University School of Business Administration. The Stetson Business School Foundation receives an annual distribution from a trust which is also designated to provide scholarships directly to The Stetson School of Business Administration student-scholars. Stetson University provides and seeks scholarships for its students. Stetson University also reimburses professors for expenses incurred in the pursuit of additional knowledge. The Stetson Business School Foundation provides that service for Stetson School of Business Administration students and professors. The Foundation is listed as a source of scholarships on the Stetson University website and printed literature. The individual grantees are selected on an objective and nondiscriminatory basis. The funds are then distributed to the Stetson School of Business Administration student-scholars and awards and expense reimbursements are made by the Foundation to the Business School Professors selected by the University. The Foundation also provides research grants to students who are chosen by Stetson University School of Business Administration Faculty. The individual grantees are selected on an objective and nondiscriminatory basis. Additionally, $95,770 was distributed directly to Stetson University for payment of student scholarships and awards made by the Stetson University School of Business Administration.
