Name: Tucson Festival of Books

Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The tenth annual Tucson Festival of Books was held March 10 and 11, 2018 on the University of Arizona campus. Authors, exhibitors and book lovers of all kinds attended the Festival which attracted approximately 140,000 people to the UA campus and raised $165,000 to advance literacy and education in Southern Arizona. The 2018 Festival attracted more than 300 authors, 300 exhibitors and staged a multitude of activities: hundreds of presentations and discussions, workshops for aspiring authors, book signings, free book give-away distribution of 6,000 titles in the Childrens area, dozens of hands-on activities were conducted in Science City, and much, much more. More than 2,000 volunteers helped present the festival during the three-day public event and 200 volunteers worked year round to plan it. Major partners in presenting the festival include the University of Arizona, the Arizona Daily Star, Tucson Medical Center, The Stocker Foundation, The Western National Parks Association, The Marshall Foundation and the William and Mary Ross Foundation.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Conflict of interest policy compliance Part VI line 12c	The conflict of interest policy applies to any director, officer, or member of a committee with governing board delegated powers who has a direct or indirect financial interest in a transaction under consideration by the corporation. Such individual has a duty to disclose the existence of the financial interest and will be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the board of directors. After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts and any discussion, the interested person shall leave the board meeting and the remaining directors shall decide if a conflict of interest exists. After exercising due diligence, the board of directors shall determine whether the corporation can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible, the directors shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement with the interested person. If the board of directors has reasonable cause to believe a director has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the director of the basis for such belief and afford the director an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose. If, after hearing the director's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the board of directors determines the director has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall inform the director of the basis for such belief and afford the director an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose. If, after hearing the director's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the board of directors determines the director has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.
