Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Green Chips Leadership Academy is a program started in 2012 to conduct sustainability leadership training for people within both the public and private sectors. The objective of the training program is to make key staff members more cognizant of ways of improving sustainability processes within their respective organizations, as well as individual professional development in terms of leadership styles, effective communication, etc. all through the lens of creating sustainability advocates in our community via an intentional public/private collaboration. This is a mission related program service and is offered 2 - 3 times a year.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

The web portal is Green Chips website, as well as an online sustainability resource for the general public. The portal focuses on eight areas of sustainability: water, energy, transportation, economic development, recycling, education, the environment and health and lifestyle. The portal informs the public of relevant upcoming events, examples of sustainability programs offered by public agencies, businesses and corporations, and other non-profits, as well as providing a wealth of information, links, and other resources.
