Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III ☐

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission

Our mission is to support and counsel our student-athletes so they will maximize their potential at U of L and be successful in preparing for their future lives. We will provide leadership for our student-athletes to inspire their achievement of the goals established in this mission statement. U of L's competitive athletics provide an outstanding leadership laboratory, and its high quality classroom instruction provides outstanding educational opportunities. It is our responsibility to assure that our student-athletes benefit from these educational and athletic experiences at U of L. To help accomplish our mission, we provide superior services to our fans and donors, the primary financial resources that support our program. These services result in the best opportunities for our student-athletes to participate in well-supported, competitive programs that bring renewed spirit to our campus, our alumni, and the Louisville community.

Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The University of Louisville Athletic Association (ULAA) achieved many impressive results during the 2017-18 fiscal year. ULAA's athletic teams posted a collective 3.204 GPA during the 2017-18 academic year, with 21 of 23 teams achieving a 3.0 or better for the 2017 fall semester. A total of 300 student-athletes were 2017 Red and Black Scholars, representing a cumulative GPA of 3.25 or better. Five University of Louisville athletic teams -- men's and women's basketball, women's cross country, and men's and women's golf - received public recognition through the NCAA Academic Performance Program for ranking in the top 10 percent in the 2016-17 most recent APR, which measures academic eligibility, retention, and graduation for student-athletes. ULAA student-athletes amassed over 9,000 service hours through its CardsCARE community outreach program during the 2017-18 year, a total which ranked among the top five in the nation in the NCAA Team Works Helper Helper Community Service Challenge. The Cardinals have ranked in the top five in service hours for four consecutive years. Louisville ranked 30th in the nation in the final Learfield Sports Director's Cup national all-sports standings. The Cardinals were one of eight ACC universities among the top 40, the second-most in the nation from one conference. Eleven UofL sports programs were ranked among the nation's top 25 teams at one point during the 2017-18 season including baseball, men's and women's basketball, field hockey, football, women's golf, rowing, men's soccer, men's and women's swimming, and women's indoor track & field. Seventeen UofL teams or individuals from teams - nine men's and eight women's -- participated in post-season competition including baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, field hockey, football, men's and women's golf, men's soccer, men's and women's swimming, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball. There were several standouts among the individual sports programs. Women's All-America swimmer Mallory Comerford captured her second consecutive NCAA Championship in the 200 free style to lead the women's swimming and diving team to a fifth-place team finish. The men's program earned a ninth place NCAA finish in the championship. The Cardinals have produced an individual national champion in seven straight seasons. UofL's women's basketball team advanced to their third NCAA Final Four in the last 10 years while posting a program-best 36-3 record. Louisville opened last season with a 20-0 record, which marked the best start and longest winning streak in program history, and reached as high as No. 2 in the Associated Press poll. The Cardinals' men's soccer advanced to the quarterfinal round of the NCAA Championship for the fifth time in the last eight seasons, producing a 13-2-5 record. Finally, UofL's women's golf team finished 15th in the nation after advancing to the final round of stroke play.

| Schedule I, Part I, Line 2Procedures for monitoring use of grant funds | Students are selected and continue to receive assistance based on their ability to contribute to the athletic program of the University of Louisville. All financial aid both athletic and non-athletic is under the control of the university Office of Financial Aid. The Office of Athletic Compliance employs a full-time Compliance Coordinator who works as a liaison with the University Financial Aid Office to monitor all athletic and non-athletic financial aid provided to our student-athletes. This includes monitoring all individual and team NCAA limits, renewals, non-renewal and cancellation of athletic scholarships, the awarding of summer financial aid, and oversees the disbursement of the Student-Assistance fund for eligible student-athletes. |

| Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a First-class or charter travel                 | Both the men's football and men's basketball teams travel to away competitions on charter planes. Charter service is submitted for competitive bids for both teams to obtain the price/service. This process is per industry standard for the majority of Division 1 schools. Per the organization's policies, first class airfare cannot be expensed back to the organization.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a Travel for companions                         | The organization obtains approval from the President's Office for all travel of athletic staff family members to special events such as post-season competitions, holiday tournaments, and other events where spouses are expected to attend for bona fide business purposes. Expenses are covered from unrestricted monies and not part of the Athletic Association's operating budget.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a Tax indemnification and gross-up payments     | Thomas Jurich - $226,787 tax gross ups on additional insurance premiums and deferred compensation benefits per employment contract.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a Health or social club dues or initiation fees | The organization is authorized to provide country club memberships for the athletic director and some of its coaching staff as part of their respective employment contracts. These benefits are taxed accordingly based on personal vs. business usage. Monthly dues are paid directly by the organization and employees are reimbursed for any business related expenses under the organization's accountable plan on a monthly basis.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a Personal services                             | Financial planning services were allowed for the Director of Athletics and were capped at a set amount per calendar year. The expenses are paid by the organization and the employee is taxed on the amount of the services provided each year.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
