Part II, Line 5	The conservation agreement and related documents state that Casey Trees maintains the following rights with regard to monitoring and enforcement policies: 1 A perpetual easement and right to preserve and protect the conservation values of the property, 2 A perpetual easement and right to enter upon and inspect the property at reasonable times, and upon prior or reasonable notice in order to monitor the landowner's compliance with and otherwise enforce the terms of the easement, provided, however, in cases where holder determines that immediate entry is reasonably necessary to prevent, terminate or mitigate a violation or suspected violation of this conservation easement, such entry may be without prior notice to land owner 3 A perpetual easement and right to prevent (including the right to seek injunctive relief) for any activity on or use of the property that is inconsistent with terms of the conservation easement and the purpose, and to require restoration of such areas or features of the property that may be damaged by any inconsistent activity or use, and 4 A perpetual easement and right to display on the property, at its discretion such signs as it may customarily use to identify lands under conservation easement, the terms of the conservation easement or the conservation values being protected. If Casey Trees determines that the landowner, or third parties under landowner's authority or control or acting with landowner's knowledge, is in violation of the terms of the conservation easement, Casey Trees will give written notice to landowner of such violations and demand corrective action. If landowner fails to cure the violation within 30 days after receipt of notice, Casey Trees may bring action at law or in equity in a court of competent jurisdiction to enforce terms of the conservation easement.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part II, Line 9	The Organization holds a conservation easement on real property located in Washington, DC. The purpose of the conservation easement is to prevent uses and development of the property that would degrade the scenic, open space and natural character of the property. Additionally, the property will be managed to provide open space, to protect existing and future tree canopy, and to protect water quality and open space. The conservation easement held by the Organization was obtained via gift deed from the property owner of record at the time of donation. Since this easement has no marketable value, the Organization assigned a nominal value of $1 to the easement and recorded it as conservation easement, which is included in other assets in the audited financial statements at June 30, 2016.

Setting of the initial salary level will account for skills, experience, locality adjustments, etc. Thereafter, on an annual basis, the Board President will review the Executive Director's performance, and account for factors such as internal and external pay equity and others as appropriate, to determine if a salary increase or other compensation is warranted. The President may assign this duty to another board member(s) at his/her discretion as needs dictate. The setting of the initial salary/benefit levels, and any increases, shall be reviewed and agreed to by the Executive Committee of the Board.
