Accordingly, no provision has been made for federal or state income taxes. Additionally, the School has been determined not to be a private foundation under Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Guidance issued by the FASB requires the School to recognize a tax liability only if it is more likely than not the tax position would be sustained in a tax examination, with a tax examination being presumed to occur. The amount recognized is the largest amount of uncertain tax position that is greater than 50% likely of being realized on examination. For tax positions not meeting the more-likely-than-not test, no tax liability is recorded. The School has examined this issue and has determined there are no material contingent tax liabilities or questionable tax positions. The School does not expect the total amount of unrecognized tax positions to significantly change in the next 12 months. The School recognizes interest and/or penalties related to income tax matters in income tax expense. The School did not have any amounts accrued for interest and penalties at June 30, 2018 and 2017.
