With the talents cultivated at the Academy, students can pursue careers as professional dancers at companies throughout the world, higher education opportunities in dance. Through the Academy's programs, students develop a diverse set of skills including artistry, creativity, discipline and confidence, among others. 1,703 students participated in the Joffrey Academy's programs, and 1,594 adult students attended drop-in classes. The Academy and Community Engagement programs provide high-quality, educational training which form future audiences and build the organization's reputation worldwide.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Community Engagement The primary goal of the Community Engagement program is to provide students in all grade levels with a highly structured dance experience where they will develop life skills articulated by Illinois State Board of Education's social emotional learning (SEL) standards such as self-discipline, respect, and confidence through the study of various forms of dance. In addition, these programs help build a strong dance foundation by focusing on correct posture, placement, coordination, strength, flexibility and musicality. By providing this service to the youth, we hope to increase the level of awareness of this art form, and instill life skills that last long after programs end. In fiscal 2018, 6,658 students benefited from The Community Engagement programs.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Organization, an Illinois nonprofit corporation, is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable state law, except for taxes pertaining to unrelated business income, if any. The Organization follows the accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the Organization may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Organization and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income. The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities for the reporting periods presented herein. The Organization files Forms 990 in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and the State of Illinois.
