Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The HHCS Unaccompanied Children Initiative provides a culturally competent continuum of care from group homes to a therapeutic residential environment for unaccompanied immigrant children who need to be reunited with families or offered legal protections. In addition, the department provides rehabilitative residential alternative to juvenile detention in Cook County and provides transitional housing to homeless youth, ages 18-24. In fiscal year 2018, over 3,000 individuals were housed in protective residential settings.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

HHCS FamilyWorks program is a collaboration with the Chicago Housing Authority to deliver comprehensive case management services to public housing residents through a team approach consisting of housing, employment, adult education, clinical, and other needed services. FamilyWorks serves all members of the household including youth and seniors. The team carries out a number of activities to positively engage public housing residents in services that lead to greater self-sufficiency starting with an initial assessment of housing and employment needs and barriers. The assessment leads to the development of individual service plans. These plans detail employment housing, support and clinical service needs as well as family needs that encompass the children's positive development. The team also works with families on lease issues and develops supports that help individuals meet work requirements. In fiscal year 2018, over 4,000 individuals and families were served through the FamilyWorks program of HHCS.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Building Stable Communities (BSC) provides supportive housing services for families and individuals in their transition from homelessness to permanent housing. Using a strengths-based family case management model, BSC provides intensive case management, housing location, rental assistance, financial literacy, child development, parenting support, job readiness and placement, life-skills development, and follow-up services. BSC housing consists of scattered-site housing that includes a subsidy while the participant is in the program. In fiscal year 2018, BSC served 269 households, which included 304 adults and 204 children.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the Agency may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Agency, and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income. The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. Management has determined that there are no uncertain tax positions during the reporting periods covered by these financial statements.
