990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b	Form 990 is prepared by an independent CPA firm and reviewed in detail by the organization's top management. The reviewed Form 990 is then provided to the board of directors prior to filing with the IRS.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	1) Annual Conflict of Interest Report The audit committee of the board performs an annual survey of potential conflicts of interest and related party transactions by requiring that each board member, officer, and senior manager (key employee) complete an annual conflict of interest questionnaire disclosing such facts. These reports are reviewed by the audit committee and, as appropriate, by legal counsel, auditors, or another independent person. 2) Further Duty to Disclose Additionally, a board member, officer, or senior manager should inform a more senior member of management and/or the chair of the audit committee if they become aware that a proposed transaction or other matter may be a related party transaction or involve an actual or potential conflict of interest. Such disclosure is not necessary if the matter was previously disclosed or if it is obvious and therefore known to the board. 3) Duty to Abstain From Decision Making A person with an actual or potential conflict of interest shall not participate in a decision about a transaction, and no member of the board of directors shall vote on a transaction in which he or she has a direct or indirect interest. 4) Opportunity to Present The interested person shall be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts concerning a potential conflict of interest and the transaction to disinterested board or management members and to respond to their questions or concerns. 5) Evaluation of the Conflict The board (or a subcommittee of the board) or a disinterested member of management will first evaluate the situation to determine whether there is an actual conflict of interest and whether it is "material." (A conflict of interest is "material" if it might affect, or might reasonably be thought by others to affect, the judgment or conduct of the interested party.) If so, a further evaluation of the transaction will occur. 6) Evaluation of the Transaction Transactions with interested directors, officers, or members of senior management are permitted if they are fair and reasonable to the corporation, in its best interests, and for its own benefit. The board should exercise reasonable due diligence (appropriate to the size and significance of the transaction) in evaluating these factors. It may first consider whether to solicit competing bids in the case of a related party transaction and whether a more advantageous transaction can be obtained with reasonable effort from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. The evaluation may be conducted by the full board, a committee of disinterested directors, management, or an outside party, including the corporation's auditors, legal counsel, or outside experts. Such evaluation must occur if there are concerns about private inurement or excess benefit transactions. 7) Vote on the Transaction The interested person shall not participate in any vote to approve the transaction. All proposed transactions where there is a po
