Part I Summary

Activities & Governance

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities
The University of Illinois Foundation's corporate mission is to advance the interests and welfare of the University of Illinois. As stated in its Articles of Incorporation, the role of the Foundation is procuring private support on behalf of the University. The Foundation functions as the independent official fundraising and private gift-receiving organization for the University of Illinois. The Foundation works hand-in-hand with the President of the University of Illinois System and the Chancellor for each university to identify strategic private support priorities, create suitable fundraising strategies and tactics, and implement and evaluate appropriate development programs. In its role of developing private gifts, the Foundation leads the effort to plan and mount special fundraising initiatives, as well as annual giving programs and major capital campaigns, working in collaboration with a network of University development professionals

Part I, Line 3	The Executive Committee shall have a Compensation Subcommittee that approves key elements of an overall compensation program which may include performance based compensation. The Compensation Subcommittee shall include at least three members of the Executive Committee and be chaired by the Immediate Past Chair of the Board of Directors. The President of the Foundation and the President of the University of Illinois shall serve as ex officio non-voting members of the Compensation Subcommittee and shall not count toward a quorum. The Compensation Sub-committee (committee) uses comparability data that is prepared by or commented upon by a competent professional. The data reflects similar organizations and/or entities from which the Foundation may attract executive talent and provides compensation levels paid by similarly situated organizations for functionally comparable positions. The President of the Foundation may assume the task of collecting the data and using it, along with a Foundation philosophy/strategy regarding compensation to make recommendations to be approved by the committee for compensation packages of any disqualified person except him/herself. The committee should review the information presented, consider the recommendation of the President and debate the issues of compensation for each individual openly and should, thereafter, make a decision by voting. The committee reviews compensation of all disqualified persons including all employees who have substantial influence over the affairs of the organization. Substantial influence is defined as having ultimate responsibility for implementing the decisions of the governing body or for supervising the management, administration, or operation of the organization. These positions include the President/CEO, Senior Vice President(s), employed Secretary and Assistant Secretaries, Treasurer, Chief Investment Officer, Controller, employed Assistant Treasurer(s), and any person who manages a discreet segment or activity of the organization that represents a substantial portion of the activities, assets, income or expenses of the organization. This process is undertaken for each position on an annual basis.
Part I, Line 7	Ellen Ellison and Edward Creedon receive a portion of their compensation based on qualitative performance goals that require a level of discretion by management.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6	Foundation Members have an ongoing engagement with the University characterized by extraordinary financial support, advocacy and involvement. Upon the October 12, 2017 effective date of these amended Bylaws, there shall be one class of members: Foundation Members. The classes of membership previously known as Honorary Members and Foundation Life Members are hereby extinguished. All former Foundation Life Members are hereby merged into the Foundation Members class. Election of Members: Foundation Members shall be elected by the Board of Directors as hereinafter provided. Foundation Members shall be encouraged to attend the Foundation's annual meeting and shall be eligible to serve on Board committees without voting privileges and without counting toward a quorum. The Membership and Governance Committee shall at least annually report to the Chair of the Board of Directors of the Foundation the names of its nominees to be Foundation Members. Foundation Members shall be elected by majority vote of the Board of Directors. No person shall be eligible for election for membership until he or she has been nominated according to the process outlined above. Voting Rights: Each Foundation Member shall be entitled to one vote on each matter, if any, submitted to a vote of the members or required by law to be voted on by the members. Term of Membership: Each Foundation Member shall serve until such individual resigns or is removed as a member by majority vote of the Board of Directors for any reason. In addition, any Foundation Member who fails to meet the requirements of membership as outlined by the Foundation Membership Program, as it may exist and be amended from time to time, is deemed to have resigned as a Foundation Member, absent good cause shown and approved by a majority vote of 3/4 the Board of Directors. For good cause to be shown, the Membership and Governance Committee shall first review the matter and make a recommendation to the Board of Directors as to whether good cause has been shown. Resignation: Any Foundation Member may resign by filing a written resignation with the Secretary. Transfer of Membership: Membership in the Foundation is not transferable or assignable. Members have no rights to receive distributions of income or assets from the organization.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The conflict of interest policy is sent out each year to every member of the Board of Directors, including officers. After the forms are completed, any reported items are summarized and sent to every member of the Audit Committee for review. The members of the Audit Committee determine if any conflicts exist. Any questions or further research required is done by the Secretary of the Board. Legal counsel reviews the summary sent to the Audit Committee and then confers with the Audit Committee chair. A summary of the review and its conclusions is then given at the next Audit Committee meeting. Directors or Officers who have declared a conflict of interest, or who have been found to have a conflict of interest, shall refrain from participating in consideration of proposed transactions unless the Board or Foundation President requests information or interpretation for special reasons. Should a conflict of interest matter require an Executive Committee or Board vote to resolve, those concerned shall not be present at the time of the vote.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The Compensation Sub-committee (committee) uses comparability data that is prepared by or commented upon by a competent professional. The data reflects similar organizations and/or entities from which the Foundation may attract executive talent and provides compensation levels paid by similarly situated organizations for functionally comparable positions. The President of the Foundation may assume the task of collecting the data and using it, along with a Foundation philosophy/strategy regarding compensation, to make recommendations to be approved by the committee for compensation packages of any disqualified person except him/herself. The committee should review the information presented, consider the recommendation of the President and debate the issues of compensation for each individual openly and should, thereafter, make a decision by voting. The committee reviews compensation of all disqualified persons including all employees who have substantial influence over the affairs of the organization. Substantial influence is defined as having ultimate responsibility for implementing the decisions of the governing body or for supervising the management, administration, or operation of the organization. These positions include the President/CEO, Senior Vice President(s), employed Secretary and Assistant Secretaries, Treasurer, Chief Investment Officer, Controller, employed Assistant Treasurer(s), and any person who manages a discreet segment or activity of the organization that represents a substantial portion of the activities, assets, income, or expenses of the organization. This process is undertaken for each position on an annual basis.
