Explanation: Our 990 is prepared in-house by myself, the Controller. I had some family medical issues in November at the time we generally file for the automatic extension (form 8868), and I failed to file the extension in a timely manner. I attempted to file the form late, but it was rejected. We have installed two safety measures internally, including having a second person share responsibility for the filings, to ensure that the deadline is not missed again.
