Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

We support adults with disabilities, mental illness, and other barriers to gain independence in work and life. Our focus is independence and community integration. We support clients by building skills and natural supports so that they can succeed independently in their work and daily lives. We train people to gain work and life skills. In our training area, we teach basic soft skills and job readiness skills and help clients with the social skills needed to thrive in the workplace. In our employment program, we help people seek competitive employment within the community. Continued on Schedule O Anyone with a disability can request our services. We currently serve approximately 90 clients. Services are provided in 2 counties, however our clients come from 5 counties. Our clients range in age from 19 to 75. Most of our clients (90 percent) live in their own homes. Ten percent live in residential care facilities. Employment We assist people through every step of job development to competitive employment. Currently supporting 39 individuals in our employment program. We also provide community work site assessments and job shadowing, which allow clients to observe or try out a job to make sure it's the right fit. Once a client is on the job, we provide job support to the person as needed until they have reached independence. This might involve anything from being present at the job site, to being available to debrief at the end of the workday. We provide support during day, evening and weekend hours. In our last fiscal year, we placed six individuals with disabilities in to employment in the community. Our employment specialists provided over 145 hours of support each month to individuals working in the community. Training We offer on-the-job training in areas ranging from retail to manufacturing. As clients train, we support them to learn soft skills such as how to communicate effectively with coworkers. We also fulfill subcontracts from businesses like Gemini Inc. and Rockwell Collins. With this training, clients gain experience assembling, sorting, collating, and stocking parts - all valuable skills to offer a prospective employer. We also offer clients the opportunity to join a team, or "enclave," that works alongside employees at an area business. These enclaves work in several capacities, such as providing quality assurance, hand assembly, and/or packing for a local manufacturer and custodial services for a bank and college. We provide support for both the client and the employer during the employment hiring process. Then, our job coaches accompany the employee during training and while on the job, to help ensure the work meets the employer's expectations. We also help individuals build natural supports in the workplace so that they can succeed when they no longer need our support. Pre-vocational skills training Successful employment involves more than completing tasks. It also depends on soft skills such keeping good attendance, socializing, tone of voice, staying focused on a task, and respecting personal boundaries. These skills don't come naturally to everyone. We carefully coach clients while they train, so that they can work independently down the road. Community Life Services Day Activities In our Adult Day Services program, clients join in structured activities such as gardening, geography, meal planning and preparation, wellness programs, arts and crafts, playing games, and cooking and excursions to events and activities within the community. This program offers opportunities for making friends and exploring new interests along with community integration. In our Supported Community Living (SCL) program, we help individuals gain skills, confidence and connection to community. We offer support in areas ranging from planning meals, to calling the doctor, to finding a place to live, grocery and clothes shopping, budgeting, balancing a checkbook, social integration, dining at restaurants, etc. We tailor our services to each individual's strengths and needs. Our highly trained staff members focus on helping clients learn to do things for themselves and achieve independence.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Organization is organized as an Iowa non-profit corporation and has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3), qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi), and has been determined not to be a private foundation under Sections 509(a)(1). The Organization is annually required to file a Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax (Form 990) with the IRS. In addition, the Organization is subject to income tax on net income that is derived from business activities that are unrelated to its exempt purposes. The Organization has determined it is not subject to unrelated business income tax and has not filed an Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return (Form 990-T) with the IRS. The Organization believes that it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken affecting its annual filing requirements, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements. The Organization would recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits and liabilities in income tax expense if such interest and penalties are incurred.
