The New City School provides an unparalleled elementary academic education, that is the foundation for success in secondary schooling and beyond, to students ranging in age from age three through grade six. New City students learn fundamental tools and skills through a rigorous and comprehensive curriculum taught by dedicated and experienced teachers.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

The New City School provides quality After School Care and Camp Programming to the community. Students in the After School Program are in the care of experienced staff members from 3:30 until as late as 6:00 P.M. In the After School Program children have a snack, play outside, do homework, play games, and read stories. Camp Programming is available during Spring Break, Winter Break, and the summer. The New City School also offers a program called "No School at School" when school is not in session during the school year and parents need child care.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

An important aspect of our international leadership role in elementary education is sharing our intellectual capital about our work with multiple intelligences and diversity. To that end, we offer workshops, wrote three books and host visitors from other schools, both locally and from around the world.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	Families seeking financial assistance complete an application process through FACTS (www.factstuitionaid.com). The application information is substantiated by FACTS by comparing the information to the family's tax return and other relevant information. The New City School, Inc. uses the information gathered by FACTS to award financial aid scholarships. Parents are sent a letter indicating the amount of the financial aid and it is applied against the amount owed for tuition.
