CORE FORM, PART III, STATEMENT OF PROGRAM SERVICE ACCOMPLISHMENTS	MISSION ===== Trinity Hall is an innovative, independent all-girls college preparatory high school educating and empowering young women in the Catholic tradition. Trinity Hall's core values of leadership, respect, perseverance, and faith are foundational to our mission and work as educators. In a technology-rich learning environment, a superior faculty and a challenging interdisciplinary curricular program fosters leadership, respect, perseverance, and faith. Unique and exciting co-curricular learning opportunities accommodate a diverse, yet collectively passionate, creative, and caring student body. These young women will be empowered to take risks, pursue personal passions, network globally, and grow as learners and as valued individuals. History ===== In 2010, a group of dedicated parents and supporters came together with a shared goal of establishing an independent all-girls high school in Monmouth County, an educational option considered long overdue. To confirm interest and feasibility, a professional educational consulting firm was hired to conduct a county-wide feasibility study which proved an overwhelming demand for a single-sex school to serve the young women of our region. Utilizing the working name Monmouth Girls Academy, the project gained much support and momentum demonstrated through the support of more than 2,100 families. In January 2012, the board of trustees proudly announced that an all-girls high school would be built, and it was named Trinity Hall in April 2012. By December 2012, the school had its leadership team, naming Mary Sciarillo as founding head of school and James Palmieri as founding assistant head of school. With Mary at the helm, teachers and staff members were hired and a plan was designed for academic, arts, and athletic programming. Though independently governed, Trinity Hall's mission purposely honors the values of Roman Catholicism, an objective valued by the school's founders from the start. As a result, the school assists in the spiritual, moral, and integral formation of every student while maintaining high standards of academic excellence. Moreover, Trinity Hall is a place designed especially for girls and the way they learn. OUR STORY ===== At Trinity Hall we have reached milestones with everything we have done from academics to athletics to the arts. We have set the standard for all the young ladies who will follow. But our most extraordinary milestone is our students and now two classes of graduates. Our second class of graduates have set, achieved and surpassed goals and continue to have aspirations for greater things in the future. We called them pioneers and leaders four years ago, now we call them alumnae. They join our first class in college and universities across the country. To date, our most challenging step of the building process was to find a permanent location. While we all may breathe a collective sigh of relief knowing we are in our permanent home, this spring work began on a two

CORE FORM, PART III, STATEMENT OF PROGRAM SERVICE ACCOMPLISHMENTS	Academic Program ===== Trinity Hall is committed to providing unprecedented opportunities for learning and leadership through an innovative curriculum taught by passionate and experienced faculty in a diverse environment that celebrates the Catholic tradition. Trinity Hall encourages students to think creatively and critically, solve problems and collaborate, communicate effectively, and lead. Through interdisciplinary studies, design thinking, and a problem-based math curriculum, students are academically well-rounded and thoroughly prepared for college. - We enrolled 201 for the 2017-2018 school year an increase of 72 for our fifth year of operation. - Students were served in an academic program of 165 days in an 8-day cycle day that includes an afternoon student support period each day, and time during the school day for clubs and student activities. - We are fully accredited by the New Jersey Association of Independent Schools and the Middle States Commission on Secondary Schools. - In May 2018, Trinity Hall administered 261 Advanced Placement tests in 20 subjects. As of July 2018, 15 students were named AP Scholars, six students were named AP Scholars with Honor, nine students were named an AP Scholar with Distinction, and one student was named a National AP Scholar. This year, two students in the Class of 2018 were recognized as National Merit Commended Scholars. - For the third year, our Junior Class attended the Leading Ladies Luncheon and enjoyed the opportunity to meet with community female leaders and hear firsthand from the Captain of the U.S. Women's Hockey team who won the Olympics. - Trinity Hall is recognized as a leader in the academic community as a rigorous high school with strong programs in humanities and STEM. Our students work hard and achieve success, growing into the capable young women we envisioned in our first year. - We are excited by the 4-year colleges that have admitted our seniors, all of whom are accepted into a school. This impressive group of 41 young women was offered admission into 105 colleges and 32 different colleges and universities, with 95% of the class receiving over $7.8 million in merit-based scholarships. - The Senior Class interned at 36 locations during the month of May as they completed their Beyond the Hall project. - We celebrate the many successes of our students and often highlight those achievements on Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter. One senior was a recipient of the Garden State Scholastic Press Association Award and this same senior designed and led a solar power workshop for middle school girls. The workshop, held in our STEM labs, was both charitable in nature and educational for the participants, 36 girls from grammar schools in Monmouth County. - On January 31, we hosted a Studio Arts Workshop for 21 of our Class of 2022 applicants. The workshop was led by members of the Senior Class taking the Studio Arts course. - The Speech and Debate team earned two trophies at two
