Part I Summary

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities
 NOLA Micro Schools is a low-cost independent school that serves an ethnically and economically diverse community of families from across New Orleans. Our core belief - that every child should be inspired and supported to realize their potential to change the world - has driven us to build a learner-centered school where children see themselves as vital members of their communities and as future leaders of their generation. In our mixed-age studios, we prepare students to pursue their passions and creativity through a blending of state-of-the-art software, Quest-like projects with real-world applications, Socratic discussions, and apprenticeships with community partners.
