Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

REPRODUCTIVE RIGHTS & HEALTH- Filed a legal challenge to a settlement agreement between the Trump Administration and Notre Dame University that is being used to deny contraceptive coverage guaranteed under the Affordable Care Act's birth control benefit-a lawsuit that was updated in the wake of the Administration's November 2017 release of its final rules on the birth control benefit - Submitted amicus briefs alongside coalition partners in California and Massachusetts supporting the nationwide injunctions against the Administration's interim final birth control rules The rules would have allowed virtually any employer or university claiming a religious or moral objection to take away insurance coverage of birth control from employees, students, and their dependents - In early 2018, led the response to a Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) proposed rule that would allow providers to use their religious or moral beliefs to avoid providing the full range of health care services, including abortion and treatment for transgender patients - Submitted extensive comments to HHS regarding the Title X family planning program and generated over 4,200 comments opposing the rule from our digital network In addition, NWLC provided technical assistance that spurred a congressional resolution responding to the proposed rules imposing a domestic gag rule on Title X - Filed our third Freedom of Information Act request in response to report that the Administration intends to rollback strong implementing regulations on the Health Care Rights Law, or Section 1557 of the Affordable Care Act - Provided technical assistance to help state lawmakers and advocates advance or secure new measures to protect or advance reproductive health access and/or counter harmful proposals

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

WOMEN'S LEGAL RIGHTSJudicial Nominations That Threaten Women's Rights- Undertook opinion research projects to understand the public's views on the Supreme Court and abortion, including targeted research on communities of color and Roe v Wade - Conceived and organized a Women's Week of Action August 20-24 to drive a conversation about what was at stake for women in a Support Court nomination and anchored a #SpeakOutSaveRoe day of storytelling. Additionally, we organized a digital day of action. With 27 partner groups, we reached over 23 million Twitter followers and trended nationally. - Our educational and advocacy efforts highlight the importance of courts and the records of judicial nominees, three of whom were not confirmed

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

WORKPLACE JUSTICE AND EDUCATIONDismantling Critical Workplace Barriers- Led the fight against the Trump Administration's decision to block equal pay data collection and secured over 21,000 signatures on a petition urging EEOC to craft a new path forward to collect pay data and help close the gender wage gap On Equal Pay Day, we activated our digital network and hosted a Facebook Live event with members of Congress that reached over 9,500 people to educate the public about the importance of data collection - Led public campaign on the increased wage gap for Black, Latinx, and Asian women-and a stagnant wage gap across women of all races, produced new materials highlighting the importance of pay transparency policies in closing the wage gap - Released a new report, Out of the Shadows An Analysis of Sexual Harassment Charges by Working Women, which examines the sexual harassment charges filed with the EEOC by women in the private sector between 2012 and 2016, establishing a critical baseline for evaluating the impact of the #MeToo movement going forward - In the context of growing the #MeToo and #TIMESUP movements, provided a leading voice in print, online and broadcast media on the dynamics of workplace sexual harassment and the need for policy solutions, and convened leading advocates and policymakers around a shared agenda to prevent and respond to sexual harassment in the workplace with a unified voice - Submitted an amicus brief on behalf of over 80 diverse organizations supporting civil rights and economic opportunity in Janus v AFSCME, a Supreme Court case in which the plaintiffs seek to overturn decades of precedent in order to weaken public sector unions - Defeated Walmart's motion to dismiss a class action lawsuit brought by two former Walmart employees that claims the retail giant discriminated against thousands of pregnant women across the country, together with co-counsel - Provided technical assistance, information, and analyses to help state-based advocates and policymakers secure or advance equal pay, fair scheduling, and pregnant worker fairness measures in numerous states Addressing Educational Barriers Faced by Girls at the Margin- Released a new report, Dress Coded Black Girls, Bodies and Bias in D C Schools, analyzing Washington, D C schools' dress code policies and their impact on Black girls The report is drawing national attention to the ways in which dress codes promote race and sex discrimination in schools - Challenged several Department of Education (ED) measures that undermine educational equity and the rights of students, including the issuance of two Title IX guidance documents on the rights of transgender students and schools' obligations to address sexual assault and harassment

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, line 2	On January 1, 2018 the organization announced the TIME'S UP Legal Defense Fund to connect and fund people who experience workplace sexual harassment and retaliation with attorneys and media specialists

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b	The Center's Controller does the first review internally by matching all the numbers to the financial statements and records, and checking all non-quantitative response for accuracy before a second review is done by the Vice President - Administration and Finance, followed by a third review by the COO & Chief of Staff and then a final review by the President & CEO. The Center's outside legal counsel then reviews the document as needed to answer questions. The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors thereafter reviews the document, and it is then provided to all members of the Board of Directors before it is filed.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Each year, members of the Board of Directors and key employees are required to complete a form disclosing any interests that may give rise to a conflict of interest. These forms are used to help determine issues on which potential conflicts might arise.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	An outside consultant analyzes compensation of the President and CEO, officers and key employees based on the annual national and Washington, DC area survey data on compensation comparability from the PRM Consulting Management Compensation Report, Not-For-Profit Organizations. The survey includes a wide range of organizations, and it gives results according to budget size that are highly correlated to compensation rates. As part of the analysis, the outside consultant reviews the Center's benefits for reasonableness and in comparison to other comparable organizations. The compensation information in the 990s of organizations similar to the Center is also reviewed for comparability. The Compensation Committee determines the compensation of the President and CEO, based on the outside consultant's report and the compensation information from the 990s of similar organizations, as well as compensation data provided by Brian Vogel and Quatt Associates. All deliberations and decisions of the compensation committee are reflected in contemporaneously drafted and approved minutes of the committee. In the case of the Co-Presidents Emerita's final compensation (a portion of which is reflected in the current year Schedule J), the Center engaged a consultant who specializes in retirement-related compensation to create a compensation plan. They performed an in-depth review of peer organizations and created a compensation plan that was reviewed by outside counsel prior to extensive deliberation by the Center's Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee also consulted with other members of the Board of Directors prior to setting the Co-Presidents Emerita's final compensation.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The Center's articles of incorporation are available for public examination at the office of the District of Columbia Corporations Division. The Center's audited financial statements are available on its website. The Center makes available its governing documents and conflict of interest policy upon request, but, in accordance with applicable law, reserves the right to withhold this information in its discretion.
