What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?
 The McLean Symphony was established in 1971 as an all-volunteer chamber orchestra. During its history it has been dedicated to providing good music at affordable prices to area residents. Recognizing the importance of fostering a love of music in young people, the Symphony presents music of winners of an annual composition festival sponsored by the Northern Virginia Music Teachers Association. The students get to hear their works performed by the Symphony in concert after being professionally orchestrated.

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.
