Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4 Intended uses of endowment funds	The College's endowment consists of various investment funds established primarily for support of the College's mission. Its endowment includes donor-restricted endowment funds. As required by generally accepted accounting principles, net assets associated with endowment funds, including funds designated by the College to function as endowments, are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of Board or donor-imposed restrictions.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 FIN 48 (ASC 740) footnote	The College has been determined to be exempt from federal income taxes under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. As a result, no provision for taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements. However, to the extent that some auxiliary revenues exceed expenses, they are considered unrelated business income and subject to taxes. The College follows the provisions of the Codification as it relates to accounting for uncertainty in income taxes. This prescribes a minimum recognition threshold and measurement methodology that a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return is required to meet before being recognized in financial statements. The College's statements of financial position at June 30, 2018 and 2017 do not include any liabilities associated with uncertain tax positions, further, the College believes it has no unrecognized tax benefits. The College would recognize interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in interest and income tax, respectively. The College does not expect the total amount of unrecognized tax benefits to significantly change in the next twelve months.
