Our family resource network creates a community communication newtowrk between families, agencies, businesses and local officals for the residents of Brooke and Hancock counties in WV. Approximately, 30,000 residents have benefited. Our disability committee is a support group that provides social activities for people with disabilities and their families and brings education and awareness to the community. The concerned citizens work on homeless issues. We help plan and organize a resource day where community agencies display and discuss information for all community members. We secured funding for Kelsey's Christmas and Christian Fellowship Food Ministry. The first provides gifts and entertainment to children suffering through cancer treatments at Christmas. The second is a Sunday meal with a Christian message and weekend food bags for the youth. The Family Resource Center is a safe place for Hancock and Brooke County families to receive material on their children's development and parenting skills. Citizens also receive information and referrals to other community agencies and services as needed.
