COMPENSATION CONTINGENT UPON THE REVENUES OF THE ORGANIZATION	SCHEDULE J, PART I, LINE 5A The Compensation Committee implemented a Compensation Philosophy for the officers of the organization through the application of the following considerations: * Base salary will be set so that the targeted positioning of an Officer is the 50th percentile of the target market for each position. Base salary for an individual Officer relative to the target market pay will be set by the President based on the individual's unique background, experiences, personal skills and abilities (including creativity, growth-orientation and discipline) as well as based on the business challenges facing the Organization which require the use of such attributes or skills. * Annual incentive compensation, if any, will be delivered according to a guideline that approximates the market 75th percentile total cash compensation for commensurate performance. The Committee has the discretion to deliver annual incentives above or below the 75th percentile based on individual circumstances and performance conditions. The aim of annual incentives is to drive and reward consistent improvement in performance. Goals to achieve an incentive payout include, but are not limited to, targets at different levels for total revenues of the organization.
