The College's policy is to record a liability for any tax position taken that is beneficial to the College, including any related interest and penalties, when it is more likely than not the position taken by management with respect to a transaction or class of transactions will be overturned by a taxing authority upon examination. Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	(a) The College President's salary and benefits package is reviewed annually by the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees. They consider the President's evaluations from all the Vice-Presidents, the manner and effectiveness with which the President has executed his duties, and the comparable compensation of the Presidents at similar institutions in the southeast. Discussions of the President's compensation are documented in the minutes. (b) The Vice Presidents are evaluated by the President annually. These evaluations are written and reviewed in private consultation with each Vice President. The salaries are based on market values for similar positions at comparative schools in the region and in keeping with the historical trends at the College. To obtain this data the school purchases the CU PA salary study for colleges of similar size for comparison.
