Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	Permanently restricted endowment funds are used predominately for financial aid to the students of the school. Board designated endowment funds are for the general operations of the school. Temporarily restricted endowment funds are donor imposed restrictions of either a time constraint or purpose restriction. The school attempts to meet temporary restrictions as soon as possible. All earnings from the endowed funds are utilized to maintain a superior education and facility for all students attending RGNS.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The School is recognized as a School exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code"). Only unrelated business income, as defined by Section 512(a)(1) of the Code is subject to income taxes. During 2018 and 2017, all the activities of the School qualify as exempt activities and do not give rise to unrelated business income. The School annually evaluates all federal and state income tax positions. This process includes an analysis of whether these income tax positions the School takes meet the definition of an uncertain tax position. In the normal course of business, the School is subject to examination by the federal and state taxing authorities. In general, the School is no longer subject to tax examinations for tax years ending before June 30, 2015. During December 2017, the President of the United States of America signed into law the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (the "Act"). Under this Act, maximum corporate tax rates were reduced from a rate of 35% to 21%. The School's tax liability for any potential unrelated business income tax should not be significant. There are other changes to the tax law that may affect the School, but the magnitude of such changes has not been determined.
