Community Projects: Our chapter donates both time and financial support for various community projects in order to give something back to our community. Our goal is at least one community project per month. Community Projects for the past year were:

Madison County Special Olympics; Annually, Milton Frank Stadium, Huntsville AL. We average volunteering 215 hours for this event.

Heroes Week-Semper Fi Community Task Force-Support to Wounded Warriors representing all service branches from all over the US.

American Cancer Society Relay for Life to support members of the community enduring cancer treatments.

Luncheons are held monthly to keep our members informed of current events in military comptrollership, Huntsville AL.

Mini Professional Development Institute (PDI) which is an annual training event hosted by our chapter for our members and non members who are in the financial and resource management communities at Redstone Arsenal. Annually; Attendees receive 7 hrs for Continuous Learning Training Credit. Scholarship Program-provided 1 annual scholarship for members and/or family members for continuing education.
