| FORM 990,PART III,LINE 4D | Disability programs are diverse to meet the many interests and abilities of individuals with disabilities who want to participate in a training program. Staff work with individuals to determine interests, skills, abilities, and any barriers to successful employment. Based on the individual's desire for employment, staff work with each to define an employment plan that details the activities, goals, and desired outcomes from the services provided by Goodwill. Whether the individual is looking for part-time or full-time work, or whether he or she is ready for independent employment or needs supported employment options, our staff work with the individual and his/her support network to determine the training schedule that meets the person's needs. The Work Activity Program provides individuals more time for job experience activities and training with support from on-the-job coaches once employed. Job coaches work one-on-one with the individual and slowly decrease their supports as the individual becomes more independent and capable of successfully handling job duties without assistance or monitoring. The Work Activity Program provides social activities to enhance quality of life for persons with significant disabilities and to continually provide opportunities for community integration for individuals beyond traditional working age. The Pre-Readiness Employment Program (PREP) provides high school students the ability to participate in school/community based work readiness services. This consists of job exploration/assessment, work readiness skill development, counseling on post-secondary training opportunities, and instruction in self-advocacy, and work-based learning experience. The initial deployment of this service occurs within the Arkansas Juvenile Assessment and Treatment Center through a partnership with Arkansas Rehabilitation Services, Rite of Passage, and DHS Division of Youth Services. The Horizons program was created as Goodwill realized a community need to serve young adults with Autism Spectrum Disorder. This job training program allows each individual to identify his/her strengths, learn new skills, and prepare to find a productive niche in the workforce in the community. Goodwill carves out occupational pathways, empowers individuals, and gives young adults and their families the opportunity to enjoy full and productive lives. |
