117 participants enrolled to learn basic reading, writing and math skills through one-to-one and small group instruction. Students are 16 or older and not enrolled in public school. They seek to improve their lives and the lives of their families through education. The program provides direct instruction to enable students to better function on the job, in their families, and in society. 32 students completed their high school equivalency diploma and 9 more completed 4 of the 5 tests.

Explanation of grants: 52 students received scholarships for testing fees for the high school equivalency exam, ranging in amount from $10 to $75 per person and totaling 1,960. Payments were made directly to the test center so the funds could not be used for any other purpose. A local private donor provided funds to pay the $50 on-line portion of the test fees for all our students this year.
