990 Schedule H, Supplemental Information

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Schedule H, Part I, Line 7 Costing Methodology used to calculate financial assistance	A cost accounting system was not used to compute amounts in the table, rather costs in the table were computed using the organization's cost-to-charge ratio The cost-to-charge ratio covers all patient segments The cost-to-charge ratio for the year ended 6/30/2018 was computed using the following formula Operating expense (before restructuring, impairment and other losses) divided by gross patient revenue Worksheet 2 was not used to derive the cost-to-charge ratio

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Schedule H, Part III, Line 2 Bad debt expense - methodology used to estimate amount	Longmont United Hospital uses the overall cost to gross charge ratio applicable to each facility to determine the costs in Part III, Lines 2 and 3 Longmont United Hospital automatically discounts all self-pay patient accounts by 30% and also offers a prompt pay discount This allowance is not included in the calculation of the cost of bad debts in instances where a patient does not pay his or her bill

990 Schedule H, Supplemental Information

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Schedule H, Part III, Line 3 Bad Debt Expense Methodology	Longmont United Hospital does not include any portion of bad debt as community benefit

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Schedule H, Part III, Line 4 Bad debt expense - financial statement footnote	Longmont United Hospital does not issue separate company audited financial statements However, the organization is included in the consolidated financial statements of Catholic Health Initiatives (CHI) The consolidated footnote reads as follows "The provision for bad debts is based upon management's assessment of historical and expected net collections, taking into consideration historical business and economic conditions, trends in health care coverage, and other collection indicators Management routinely assesses the adequacy of the allowance for uncollectible accounts based upon historical write-off experience by payor category The results of these reviews are used to modify, as necessary, the provision for bad debts and to establish appropriate allowances for uncollectible net patient accounts receivable After satisfaction of amounts due from insurance, CHI follows established guidelines for placing certain balances with collection agencies, subject to the terms of certain restrictions on collection efforts as determined by each facility The provision for bad debts is presented on the consolidated statements of operations as a deduction from patient services revenues (net of contractual allowances and discounts) since CHI accepts and treats substantially all patients without regard to the ability to pay "

990 Schedule H, Supplemental Information

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Schedule H, Part III, Line 8 Community benefit & methodology for determining medicare costs	Cost for each hospital's cost report is pulled from year end trial balances The cost is then evaluated and all non-allowable cost is removed via adjustments The remaining allowable cost is then allocated to appropriate patient care and non-patient care cost centers based on Medicare allocation principles

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Schedule H, Part III, Line 9b Collection practices for patients eligible for financial assistance	Longmont United Hospital's debt collection policy provides for the performance of a reasonable review of each patient's account prior to turning an account over to a third-party collection agent and prior to instituting any legal action for non-payment The review of patient accounts is done to assure that the patient or their guarantor is not eligible for assistance through Longmont United Hospital's charity care policy, uninsured discount policy, or another financial assistance program (i e Medicaid) Longmont United Hospital requires the following of its third-party collection agencies * Neither Longmont United Hospital or their collection agencies will request bench or arrest warrants as a result of non-payment, * Neither Longmont United Hospital or their collection agencies will seek liens that would require the sale or foreclosure of a primary residence, and * No Longmont United Hospital collection agency may seek court action without hospital approval Once a patient is known to qualify for financial assistance, collection actions are then suspended
