Part III Statement of Program Service AccomplishmentsCheck if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III ☐1 Briefly describe the organization's mission

Coalition for Education Equity (CEE) is a non-profit organization providing services throughout Alaska. CEE was incorporated in the State of Alaska on January 7, 1998. CEE was formed to address discriminatory and unconstitutional practices by the State of Alaska in funding rural Alaska schools. Since then, CEE has expanded to work in the legislative and public arenas on the range of problems facing at-risk students and low-performing schools in rural and urban areas. Dues are collected from member school districts throughout Alaska, as well as non-district members. In addition, CEE manages a scholarship fund for Alaskan students, as well as a constitutional defense fund.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part II-B, Line 1i - Other Activities Description	Coalition for Education Equity adopts a legislative plan annually to pursue our core mission of assuring equitable funding of rural Alaska school construction and operations, and policies supporting improvement of low-performing rural schools. Primary efforts have focused on the State of Alaska's school construction funding system, to create equity with urban schools and to make technical and policy changes to law so the system will function as intended. We have also worked with the state administration and legislature on implementation of the constitutional lawsuit we successfully settled, which provides funding to low-performing rural schools to provide equal educational opportunity for the children enrolled there. 1a Volunteers provide written and in-person testimony in support of legislation, distribute messaging and encourage additional testimony from community members. 1b 10% of Executive Director's time spent developing legislative agenda, crafting messages, meeting with legislators and legislative staff, encouraging testimony from members, and providing testimony. 1g Contractor compensation for organization's government relations directors, who monitor legislative developments, provide strategic direction to the executive director and board members in setting legislative priorities, directing strategy, and helping draft language for legislative correspondence.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X FIN48 Footnote	CEE is a nonprofit corporation exempt from income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. However, income derived from unrelated business activities is subject to taxation and a tax liability may be determined on these activities. The Organization's policy is to report interest and penalties associated with uncertain tax positions, if any, as interest expense and other expense, respectively. With few exceptions, the Organization is not subject to audit of its tax returns prior to 2015. As of June 30, 2018 and 2017 there were no uncertain tax positions or unrecognized tax benefits for which management believes it is reasonably possible that the total amounts of tax contingencies will significantly increase or decrease within 12 months of the reporting date.
