Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Youth Development Our YMCA is committed to nurturing the potential of every child and teen We believe that all kids deserve the opportunity to discover who they are and what they can achieve That's why we help young people cultivate the values, skills and relationships that lead to positive behaviors, better health and educational achievement The Y's early childhood development programs model and support the YMCA core values of caring, honesty, respect and responsibility Our programs foster growth and cognitive development, help children develop moral and ethical behavior, self-esteem and leadership skills, and provide children with a safe, nurturing place to play and grow Character development is an integral part of YMCA early childhood development programs and services and as a result, at a very early age, children and youth establish the foundation needed to grow into responsible members of their families and communities and ultimately our future leaders YMCA licensed early childhood development sites serve more than 2,000 children and their families every year

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Healthy Living The Y is a leading voice on health and well-being We bring families closer together, encourage good health and foster connections through fitness, sports, fun and shared interests for people of all ages, incomes and abilities The YMCA of San Francisco provides a wide range of wellness programs focused on helping individuals develop key character values These programs include individual and group-exercise, youth sports, adult sports, rehabilitation, wellness education, aquatics and youth fitness Each year, more than 60,000 men, women, seniors, youth and teens participate in our programs and services and enhance their health and well-being Through the generosity of YMCA donors, financial assistance is available making programs accessible to all in the community In fiscal year 2016-2017, we provided $1.4M in financial support to people who otherwise may not have been able to afford to participate

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Social Responsibility The YMCA of San Francisco believes in giving back and supporting our neighbors. We have been listening and responding to our community's most critical needs for more than 164 years. Through day camp, resident camp, outdoor education and environmental stewardship opportunities we address community needs and provide exciting and rewarding camping experiences and environmental outdoor education. All programs foster personal growth and an awareness of nature, and integrate our four core values of caring, honesty, respect and responsibility throughout our five proven principles of youth development. Camps provide a wholesome learning opportunity filled with fun and exercise, where youth build camaraderie and an appreciation of nature. Young adults with camping experience are able to share their experience while developing leadership and social skills by serving as counselors-in-training under the supervision of professional camp counselors. YMCA of San Francisco camps address critical needs of underserved populations in the bay area by providing healthy leadership experiences.

Schedule I, Part I, Line 2 Procedures for monitoring use of grant funds	The YMCA of San Francisco (YMCASF) issues grants or distributes a portion of grant funds to other YMCAs or community based organizations (CBO). There are two methods through which it monitors the use of grant funds. First, the program staff regularly communicates with the YMCA/CBO grantee as it conducts the work funded. Second, YMCASF typically requires a report on use of funding from the YMCA/CBO grantee. The report is requested and stored through the data management system. Reports request information about how the YMCA/CBO used the grant funds, including activities conducted, progress toward objectives and outcomes. In some cases, YMCASF requires a detailed accounting of how the YMCA/CBO allocated the grant funds and whether any of these funds remain. YMCASF has available, a variety of barrier removal awards that provide goods and services to allow community residents to overcome obstacles to self-sufficiency. Senior community development staff assesses each application on its own merit prior to making any award. Award amounts are dependent on available funding each year, there is no guaranteed or set amount for each award each year. Barrier removal awards are capped at $1,000 per recipient. Recipients of awards are monitored for appropriate use of resources.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 3 Compensation of top management officials	YMCA of San Francisco's Vice President of Human Resources organizes YMCA of San Francisco executive compensation analysis. The Vice President of Human Resources provides relevant market salary analysis and comparisons for the CEO, other officers, directors, key employees and other highly compensated executives to the executive compensation committee of the Board of Directors to review and approve annually. Analysis conducted by Vice President of Human Resources includes (1) National compensation guidelines provided by YMCA of the USA (2) Local market information (3) Local not-for-profit information (4) independent executive compensation consultants who do a full market analysis for profit and non-profit executive compensation and (5) National, Regional and local YMCA and other non-profit executive benchmarking. After the executive compensation committee reviews all relevant salary analysis they give their recommendations to the executive committee of the Board of Directors that approves CEO compensation, incentive and benefits. The Chair of the executive compensation committee reviews comp committee recommendations with the full Board of Directors to determine compensation of CEO after recommendation from the executive compensation committee. The Full Board approves and/or ratifies executive committee's recommendation regarding CEO compensation, incentives, perks and benefits. Additionally, the compensation committee reviews the promotions and compensation of other officers, directors, key employees and highly compensated

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 1 Brief Description of Mission	(CONTINUED FROM FORM 990, PART III, LINE 1) the nation's health and well-being, and provides opportunities to give back and support neighbors. Serving the City and County of San Francisco, Marin and San Mateo counties, we have 14 branches and more than 120 program sites providing programs focused on youth development, healthy living and social responsibility. YMCA programs emphasize the core values of caring, honesty, respect and responsibility as learning opportunities throughout our program and service offerings. Annually, the YMCA of San Francisco serves more than 92,000 youth, families, adults and seniors and is committed to strengthening the foundations of community. No one is turned away due to inability to afford program fees. The goals of all YMCA programs and services are to help participants: - Model and support the YMCA core values of caring, honesty, respect and responsibility - Grow as responsible members of their families and communities - Understand that well-being means a healthy spirit, mind and body - Build self-esteem - an appreciation of one's worth as a contributing member of society - Work toward broader cultural understanding - Develop skills for leadership - Respect nature and gain an understanding of environmental principles Aquatics YMCA aquatic programs are part of the Y's focus on healthy living and youth development. In addition to providing specific swimming and water safety skills, YMCA aquatics programs promote good health through regular exercise. Aquatics programs also promote teamwork, self-confidence and leadership. Affordable Wellness The YMCA of San Francisco offers affordable programs and services designed to benefit people of all income levels. Financial assistance is available for those who qualify. Last year the YMCA of San Francisco updated qualifying standards for membership financial assistance to reflect the rising cost of living in the bay area. Residence and Related Areas The YMCA of San Francisco provides short-term low cost housing to young people, students and seniors. The Single Room Occupancy residences provide a clean and affordable temporary living environment. Single Room Occupancies are small, single room living spaces, typically with no kitchen and shared bathrooms. In School Education The YMCA of San Francisco operates Youth Chance High School which provides underserved teens a second chance to obtain a high school education and job readiness preparation. Programs like high-tech computer and learning centers and job readiness courses provide technical and practical training to the community. As a way to keep youth involved and interested in learning, we have developed specific in-school programs in close partnership with the San Francisco Unified School District, the Mayor's Office and the Department of Children, Youth and Their Families (DCYF). We are a premier nonprofit partner with local government, schools, social service agencies, churches, clinics and other nonprofit organizations.
