990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 1	The governing board has an executive committee which, with several specific exceptions, has the authority to act for the board on all matters should the executive committee determine that it would be imprudent wait for the next board meeting to take action. The committee is composed of the chairs of the standing committees (except for the audit and risk management committees), the university president, the president of the PLNU Foundation and the officers of the board (the chair, vice chair, and secretary). The board, through its policy manual and various adopted resolutions, has delegated specific levels of responsibility and authority to the university president in order to enable him and others at the university to make timely operational decisions. The president works with an administrative cabinet that has been hired by the president and approved by the board in carrying out his delegated responsibilities and in operating the university on a day to day basis. The administrative cabinet is composed of the university president, the vice president of finance and administration, the vice president for external relations, the vice president for spiritual development, the vice president for student development, the vice president for university advancement, and the provost. The only individual who also serves as a member of the governing body is the university president.
