Potential grant recipients complete applications to be eligible for various forms of financial aid awards. The financial aid office reviews applications to determine eligibility requirements, which are mainly a combination of financial resources and academic merit as evinced through our admissions application process.

The financial aid office additionally verifies that other requirements such as GPA, credit hours, good academic standing and enrollment status are met. Student applicants receive an award letter identifying the award amounts. Awards are applied as a credit to student accounts each semester. The registrar's office provides information such as withdrawal notices to help the financial aid office to monitor periodically the eligibility criteria

Copies of the Form 990 are made available for review to all members of the AUP Board of trustees prior its submission with the IRS.

The Board Audit Committee approves the final version prior to filing.

Form 990, Section B, Line 12c:

A trustee who has a known material financial interest in a pending or proposed transaction or business arrangement involving the University shall promptly disclose to the Board the existence of the interest and other material information that the trustee may have regarding the transaction or arrangement. In addition, each trustee shall annually sign and submit to the Chairman of the Board of Trustees a statement disclosing all material financial interests, known to the trustee, of the trustee or a family member, in any outside entity with which the trustee knows the University has or is considering a transaction or other business relationship, or affirming that the trustee knows of no such interests. The Chairman shall review annual disclosure statements to determine whether a material financial interest has been disclosed.

If a material financial interest has been disclosed, the Chairman shall promptly submit it to the Chair of the Board Business Affairs Committee (or, if the interests involve the Chair of the Business Affaires Committee, another member of the Business Affaires Committee) such disclosure forms together with any additional information about the current or proposed transaction or business relationship that may give rise to a conflict of interest.

If the Business Affairs Committee determines that there is a conflit of interest, it shall advise the interested trustee, who shall have an opportunity to address the matter with the Business Affairs Committee.

When a conflict of interest determination is referred to the Board, either following review by the Business Affairs Committee or if disclosure is made in the first instance to the Board (for example, when a trustee becomes aware of a possible conflict of interest during or just before a meeting of the Board) unless the trustee elects recusal, the Board shall decide whether a conflict of interest exists. The Board may question the interested trustee and the trustee shall have an opportunity to address to the Board whether there is a conflict. The interested
