Schedule D, Part III, Line 1a and 4	The University maintains an inventory of works of art. The works of art are primarily comprised of paintings and sculptures and are displayed throughout the campus. Under the provisions of SFAS 116, the University is not required to and does not report these items in its financial statements.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	"The University follows ASC 740-10 which clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a return, including issues relating to financial statement recognition and measurement. This section provides that the tax effects from an uncertain tax position can be recognized in the financial statement only if the position is "more likely than not" to be sustained if the position were challenged by a taxing authority. The assessment of the tax position is based solely on the technical merits of the position, without regard to the likelihood that the tax position may be challenged. The University is exempt from federal income taxation by virtue of being an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Nevertheless, the University may be subject to tax on income unrelated to its exempt purpose, unless that income is otherwise excluded by the Code. Management has determined that there are no material uncertain tax positions within its consolidated financial statements."
