Where appropriate, the board reviews external comparable data and seeks advice of external consultants when deemed necessary to ensure total compensation of these individuals is reasonable and reflects fair market value for base salary, bonus structure, and medical benefits. The bonus structure is based on completion of the organization's and their related entities mission especially as it relates to quality of care for the resident no matter the person's age, ethnicity, religion, sexual preference or ability to pay. This is measured by such criteria as federal and state survey results and the number substantiated and unsubstantiated complaints as well as other both subjective and objective criteria as the board of trustees deems appropriate to use as circumstances dictate.
