Form 990, part VI, section B, line 12C.

The NAIFA conflict of interest policy and disclosure form, which covers the NAIFA Board of Trustees, is explained and distributed to the NAIFA Board annually at its first meeting and the disclosure form is completed by the Board members at that time. The NAIFA conflict of interest policy is also distributed to Board members throughout the year by inclusion with the materials distributed for each NAIFA Board meeting and Board members are reminded of the policy at the beginning of each Board meeting. NAIFA Board members have continuing obligation to promptly disclose to the Board if a potential, apparent, or actual conflict of interest arises and, if required, to remove himself/herself from NAIFA Board discussions and decisions concerning the matter and to take such other actions as may be called for by the Board. It is the NAIFA Board's obligation to consider each matter brought to its attention under the conflict of interest policy and to advise the Board members involved as to the appropriate action. NAIFA Board members may submit questions regarding the conflict of interest policy to NAIFA's General Council.

The conflict of interest policy contained in the NAIFA employee handbook covers all NAIFA employees and requires employees to immediately notify their supervisors of a potential conflict of interest. NAIFA management reserves the right to prohibit any activity that may constitute a conflict of interest and employees who participate in practices that constitute a prohibited conflict of interest are subject to a disciplinary action.
