MY NEIGHBORHOOD is a group of volunteers that have raised funds to create a Community Garden on an empty lot provided by the City of Artesia in an economically challenged neighborhood. My Neighborhood hopes to provide a sense of community ownership and stewardship while fostering the development of a community identity and spirit. Not only will this beautiful spot provide a common meeting spot to get to know neighbors, and, hopefully lead to crime prevention and community leadership in the residents, it will also provide these families the opportunity to grow fresh, healthy food for their families. This garden will also offer the opportunity for local schools to teach first hand lessons surrounding the agricultural arena, including where food comes from, math, economics, environmental responsibility and stewardship. At this point in construction, there are 14 individual planter boxes and 5 handicap elevated boxes, with the potential for 10 more planter boxes in the future. There are 12 smaller planter boxes in the childrens' area as well. In addition to the individual planter boxes, there are large boxes along the east fence with room for 3-5 gardeners and the entire back fence with room for 6-8 gardeners.
