HOPE TECHNOLOGY SCHOOL

Encouraged by the success of its Education Lab, Erudite Technology Group began work in 2000 to develop a full-inclusion model elementary school for children with and without special needs, capitalizing on best practices in education and technology. Work to develop the school continued in 2001 and culminated in its official opening in September 2001. The school is called Hope Technology School (HTS) and has expanded to include programs for children from preschool through middle school and beyond. After more than a decade, HTS continues to fulfill its purpose of providing first class education to all children, but particularly to children with special needs, with dignity and acceptance.

During September 1, 2017 - August 31, 2018 school year, HTS served 85 students in Kindergarten through eighth grade, 14 students in the preschool, 4 students in our VocEd program, and 7 students in our High School Learning Curve program.

Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2; Part III, column (b); and any other additional information.

Part 1, Line 2. The Hope Technology School, operated by Erudite Technology Group, Inc. and located in Palo Alto, California, offers tuition assistance to students whose families have financial restraints that make them unable to afford the full tuition. The school requires an application and written documentation of family resources in order to determine need. Assistance is awarded after consideration of the family's total education expenses and resources available. Only students who have been accepted for enrollment in Hope Technology School are eligible to apply. Assistance is provided in the form of a discount in the amount of tuition due. No cash disbursements are made to individuals. HTS retains applications for assistance and awards information to substantiate the amounts of assistance provided.
