Return Reference	Explanation
Part V, Line 4 Intended uses of the endowment fund	The Miriam Hospital Foundation's (the Foundation, or TMHF) endowment funds have been established for a variety of purposes, including both donor-restricted funds and funds designated by the Foundation to function as endowments. The Foundation's largest permanently restricted endowment generates income which is donor-designated to support The Miriam Hospital's (TMH) Emergency Department(ED). The Foundation maintains another large permanently restricted endowment fund, the income from which is donor-designated for the general use and purposes of the Department of Cardiology at TMH. Income from several of the Foundation's other notable permanently restricted endowments is for the general use and purposes of TMH, while others support: (1) education and research in TMH's Department of Medicine, (2) neuroscience research, (3) TMH's geriatrics program, (4) purchases of various types of medical equipment and beds, (5) physician international services, (6) work to find a cure for myelofibrosis, and (7) nursing scholarships. The largest temporarily restricted funds held by TMHF are used to support Pelvic Floor Disorders research, the Capital Campaign Building Fund at TMH, and the treatment of cancer. Other significant temporarily restricted funds of the Foundation sustain clinical shared chairs with The Warren Alpert Medical School of Brown University in geriatrics, cardiology, immunology, and oncology, as well as support the operational needs of TMH's ED. TMHF's unrestricted endowment supports spending priorities at TMH collaboratively established by the management of TMH and TMHF and approved by TMHF's Board, and also defrays the Foundation's fundraising expenses primarily incurred for services purchased from Lifespan Corporation.

Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	The Miriam Hospital Foundation (the Foundation) engages in philanthropic activities to support the mission and purposes of The Miriam Hospital (TMH), a related 501(c)(3) organization. During the fiscal year ended September 30, 2018, the Foundation made temporarily restricted net asset transfers to TMH amounting to $2,080,701 to be spent by TMH in support of certain building and equipment additions or specified clinical programs. A master database of TMH's temporarily restricted funds is maintained as the primary source for identifying each fund's restriction, the availability of the current balance, and the authorized personnel for the respective fund. The database contains the fund's name, primary reporting department, most recent month end balance, fund purpose/restriction, and the management responsible for the fund. Expenditures (purchase requisitions, work order requisitions, check requests, and employee reimbursements) from TMH's temporarily restricted funds must be presented to the Lifespan Finance Department for approval prior to processing. Each request is reviewed to ensure the availability of funds and that the expense/purchase is both in conformity with the fund's restriction and approved by the required levels of authorized personnel referenced in the database. Additionally, the Foundation made grants from its unrestricted net assets to TMH totaling $1,223,360 in fiscal year 2018 in support of spending priorities collaboratively established by the management of TMH and the Foundation and approved by the Foundation Board. The Foundation and Brown University (Brown) have several agreements pursuant to which each entity maintains endowment funds representing 50% of certain endowment gifts which support various clinical shared chairs. Each agreement specifies a spending rate which is applied to the trailing three-year average fair value of the applicable endowment funds to arrive at an amount used to support the named professorships. Payments distributing these amounts, which are made by the Foundation to Brown on a quarterly basis, totaled $298,695 in fiscal 2018. Under the terms of the agreements, Brown is required to provide an annual accounting to the Foundation sixty days following the anniversary of each agreement.
