Holiday Swim Club is a mutual benefit non-profit that exists for the purpose of bringing community members together. The pool has been maintained by neighboring members of the Keizer community since 1964. We strive to provide a safe and inviting atmosphere where kids and adults alike can learn to swim and enjoy the benefits of a pool facility. While we are a private club, we welcome all those who want to become a member of Holiday Swim Club. Our swim lessons extend to the general public in the attempt to teach each child water safety and basic swimming skills. It is our belief that by engaging and investing in those people and facilities around us we build an atmosphere where community can take root. Holiday Swim Club invites you to join in our efforts to continue the tradition of building an atmosphere where we can all thrive by exploring our website or scheduling a visit.
