Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

GeoRef The computerized bibliographic database records and indexes the world's geoscience literature making this information accessible to earth scientists and the general public Established by the American Geosciences Institute in 1966, the GeoRef database provides access to the geoscience literature of the world GeoRef is the most comprehensive database in the geosciences and continues to grow by more than 100,000 references a year The database contains over 4 million references to geoscience journal articles, books, maps, conference papers, reports and theses

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Periodicals Earth Magazine is the premier publication for news about the men and women in the earth sciences, what's going on in the profession and things that affect the industry. Over 12,000 geologists and geophysicists find in this magazine an extensive calendar of earth-science meetings, lists of geologic events such as earthquakes, news of professional societies and year-end journal indexes.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Education AGI's Education Program include awards for excellence in teaching K-12 Earth science, working in partnership with commercial publishers to provide exemplary Earth science curricula, offering both face-to-face and online Earth science professional development opportunities for K-12 teachers, a collection of resources to aid in K-12 Earth science teaching, and online resources for professional geoscientists working with classroom teachers

AGI Publications Since 1948, AGI has provided premier publishing, curriculum development, and information services to the geoscience community. Representing over fifty earth science societies and other community cooperatives, AGI's publishing efforts increase public awareness of the vital role the geosciences play in our world. AGI's reference books (Glossary of Geology, The Geoscience Handbook, Directory of Geoscience Departments) provide critical knowledge to the geoscience student or professional. Our educational products, such as Earth Science Week, steer the future geoscientists to the right path and AGI's reports on the geoscientific academic community and the workforce feature crucial information and statistics extremely important for the recent, or soon-to-be, college graduate.

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
	1
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.
	2

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).
	1

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (i) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (ii) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (iii) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
	1
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization (s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
	2
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.
	3

Section E. Type III Functionally-Integrated Supporting Organizations

1 Check the box next to the method that the organization used to satisfy the Integral Part Test during the year (see instructions) a ☐ The organization satisfied the Activities Test. Complete line 2 below.
b ☐ The organization is the parent of each of its supported organizations. Complete line 3 below.
c ☐ The organization supported a governmental entity. Describe in Part VI how you supported a government entity (see instructions).
2 Activities Test Answer (a) and (b) below.
a Did substantially all of the organization's activities during the tax year directly further the exempt purposes of the supported organization(s) to which the organization was responsive? If "Yes," then in Part VI identify those supported organizations and explain how these activities directly furthered their exempt purposes, how the organization was responsive to those supported organizations, and how the organization determined that these activities constituted substantially all of its activities. 2a
b Did the activities described in (a) constitute activities that, but for the organization's involvement, one or more of the organization's supported organization(s) would have been engaged in? If "Yes," explain in Part VI the reasons for the organization's position that its supported organization(s) would have engaged in these activities but for the organization's involvement. 2b
3 Parent of Supported Organizations Answer (a) and (b) below.
a Did the organization have the power to regularly appoint or elect a majority of the officers, directors, or trustees of each of the supported organizations? Provide details in Part VI. 3a
b Did the organization exercise a substantial degree of direction over the policies, programs and activities of each of its supported organizations? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role played by the organization in this regard.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part I, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission	The American Geosciences Institute (AGI) was founded in 1948, under a directive of the National Academy of Sciences, as a network of associations representing geoscientists with a diverse array of skills and knowledge of our planet. The Institute provides information services to geoscientists, serves as a voice of shared interests in our profession, plays a major role in strengthening geoscience education, and strives to increase public awareness of the vital role the geosciences play in society's use of resources, resilience to natural hazards, and the health of the environment. AGI connects Earth, science, and people by serving as a unifying force for the geoscience community. With a network of more than 50 member organizations, AGI represents over a quarter-million geoscientists across the country and around the world. No matter your individual discipline, AGI's essential programs and services will strengthen your connection to the geosciences.
