Form 990, Part III, Line 4a PROGRAM DESCRIPTION	(continued from part III) The Foundation assists those who are not insured, those who need more than insurance covers, those who cannot afford to pay, those who have family members affected by a patients' health condition, and those who need assistance with needs outside or in addition to their direct medical diagnosis. The Foundation seeks to provide care, compassion, comfort, and inspiration to everyone directly and indirectly affected by family members' medical needs and regardless of diagnosis, race, faith, age, or financial circumstances. Established in 1983, Suncoast Hospice Foundation has a long and trusted track-record of serving the community. Voted not-for-profit of the year in the large business category by the Clearwater Regional Chamber of Commerce in 2014, the community has shown its support for over 40 years, investing up to $10,000,000 every year to support on-going operations. Community support is provided in a variety of ways including memorial tributes, estate and planned gifts, major contributions, and designated gifts for specific purposes. It is a volunteer board of trustees oversees efforts and provides leadership in the cultivation, solicitation and stewardship of its community stakeholders. In addition to providing financial resources to assist programs and services of Empath Health, the Foundation engages in and with the community through support, volunteer engagement, and community involvement. Members of the staff and board are fully engaged in community activities through service to others, ensuring the organization knows and understands the needs of the communities in which it serves. Its social responsibility includes engagement activities such as the hospice beach stroll, aids walk, hospice gala, and other annual community-based and supported events. Three hospice resale stores provide ways to engage volunteers in the mission of the organization, offer opportunities for families to give back through donated items, and provide the community with access to much-needed, affordable goods. In addition to annual needs, Suncoast Hospice Foundation provides for new and/or expanding programs, services, facilities, and organizational needs. Past support has included new in-patient service centers, pace adult day care center, service centers, and technological advances. Current initiatives include home 3050, a medical home for persons living with HIV and their families, an endowment campaign, specialized campaigns for choices for care, services for pediatric patients, integrative medicine services, and possible future capital campaigns for future expansion.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b COMPENSATION OF OTHER OFFICERS AND KEY EMPLOYEES	The compensation of the organization's other officers is determined by Empath Health, Inc (EHI), a related organization. Therefore, this question is answered "no" in accordance with Form 990 instructions. The compensation of other officers is reviewed on an annual basis by the CEO of EHI, and was most recently evaluated during the year ended September 30, 2018. After reviewing officer compensation, the CEO's recommendations are then approved by EHI's Board of Directors. These reviews are documented in each employee's file. The review of other officers' compensation includes information provided in the most recent external compensation review. External compensation reviews are performed according to the process below. Every 3-5 years HUMAN RESOURCES will employ a well-recognized, independent compensation consultant to review the market ranges for the CEO of EHI and the other officers. The review will include a national comparison of similar jobs at similarly situated companies in order to make certain that these key employees are paid within a reasonable and appropriate range. The resulting recommendations will be reviewed as is appropriate to recommend any market-based changes or possibly just assure ourselves of the current correct positioning of compensation for these individuals.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Conflict of interest policy	All officers, directors, trustees, key employees and highest paid employees (interested persons) of the organization have a duty to avoid conflicts of interest, both real and perceived, which may negatively impact the organization or those it serves. The organization's interested persons are to be guided by the organization's mission, vision and values and to serve patients, families and the general public without need for any personal favor or gain. The organization's ethics and compliance plan emphasizes the duty interested persons have to disclose any actual or potential conflicts of interest that may benefit their private interests or result in a possible excess benefit transaction. Conflicts are disclosed annually on a conflict of interest questionnaire that is distributed to the officers, directors, key employees, and highest compensated employees. In the event of any actual or potential conflicts of interest, interested persons must disclose the existence of their financial interest and disclose all material facts to the board chair, CEO or other designated persons. If it is determined an actual conflict of interest exists between the organization and an interested person, the party with a conflict of interest must abstain from any discussion or voting on the transaction or arrangement involving the conflict of interest. At each board meeting, board members are reminded that they have signed a conflict of interest disclosure and are asked to review the agenda and, for the record, disclose any items with which they may have a conflict of interest.
