Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements. The Foundation has also been classified as an entity that is not a private foundation within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code Section 509(a). Accounting standards require management of the Foundation to evaluate tax positions and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Foundation has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service. Management of the Foundation has analyzed the tax positions taken and has concluded that as of September 30, 2018 and 2017, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require the recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. The Foundation may be subject to audit by the Internal Revenue Service, however there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The conflict of interest policy is set forth in the Organization's Bylaws, and is based on 34 CFR Section 682.410(b)(1). A copy of this policy is provided to each board member and officer. In addition, each employee is provided a copy of the "prohibited inducement" policy and required to acknowledge in writing that they have read and understand the requirements of the policy. Although an annual report is not required of board members or key employees, to ensure compliance with these policies legal counsel is made aware of all significant transactions and attends board meetings to ensure that any conflict is considered, disclosed and resolved in accordance with policy. Board members are required to recuse themselves from any vote or deliberation which might result in a violation of the conflict of interest policy.
