COMMUNITY AND YOUTH SERVICES Community Youth Development Dallas contributes to the Poverty Alleviation Mandate and address the complex issues of poverty in our community by serving youth through age 17 who live in and/or attend school in the designated Dallas Zip Codes, 75216 & 75217 with the target age range of 10 to 17 years. Specifically, CYD Dallas increases awareness of and access to services, maximizes involvement of people with low incomes, pursue positive individual, family and community level change and engage local community partners and citizens in solutions. Community Youth Development (CYD) was the brain-child of the 74th Texas Legislature in 1995. The overall goal is to have a positive impact on the lives of children and youth and to enhance their critical development. The Department of Family and Protective Services initial purpose of the program was to provide funding assistance to community collaborations designed to alleviate family and community conditions that lead to crime, through prevention programming. Dallas CYD is a collaboration of community-based organizations and resources committed to providing a healthy community that will promote a legacy for its young people that supports positive character development, self-esteem, and pride. It was the Dallas zip code community of 75216 that was identified in 1995, as having one of the highest incidences of juvenile crime in the state of Texas. Community-based organizations and resources began providing prevention program services and juvenile arrest rates and delinquency referrals to the Dallas County Juvenile Department (DCJD) declined. Programs such as after school services, recreation, and gang prevention alternatives prevented many of the children from entering the juvenile justice system. In January 2001, the Dallas CYD program expanded to include another Dallas Zip Code community of 75217. Similar prevention strategies began operating in this community as well. Family members of eligible participants are only eligible for services if the service involves the entire family, including the eligible youth participant. Parental involvement is viewed as an essential component of the CYD program and therefore parents are encouraged to participate in the Parental Involvement offering. Dallas CYD will start to address basic needs and offer emergency services, ultimately working towards self-sufficiency and enhancing economic mobility by implementing and executing the Whole Person, Whole Family Navigation Services model for poverty alleviation. In 2018, 2,508 youths were served. All participants remained 100% arrest free. The demographics include the following: African-Americans-35%, White-25%, Asian-15%, American Indian/Alaska Native - 5%, Native Hawaiian / Pacific Islander-10%, Unable to Determine 5%, Decline to indicate- 5%, 1225 Males- 1282 Females. Age range of participants 236- participants 7-10 years of age 1023- participants 11-14 years of age 1249- participants 15-17 years of age.
