Part IV, Section A, Line 2	The supported organization is not required to obtain recognition of its public charity status because it is a governmental entity

990 Schedule A, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Section D, Line 3	The officers of the Foundation and the Medical Center maintain a close continuous working relationship, and because of this relationship, the Medical Center has a significant voice in the Foundation's investment policies, timing and manner of grants, and other use of income or assets. It is typical to see the Foundation activities mentioned or referenced at the board meetings of the Medical Center and the activities of the Medical Center mentioned or referenced at the board meetings of the Foundation. The Foundation is constantly monitoring the needs of the Medical Center in which it supports, and it is typical for 1-2 hospital board members to be a board member of the Foundation even if it is ex-officio. Before the Foundation begins the fundraising activities the Board requests a list of equipment from the Medical Center of which the Foundation can assist with purchasing. The Foundation Board selects specific items from the list in which they will assist with funding. The Foundation purchases the equipment they select with the funds raised from the fundraising activities.
