Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	GROW executes a fiscal sponsorship grant agreement with select projects. Donations earmarked for a project operating under GROW's sponsorship are actually given to the GROW. GROW then places the donations in a fund dedicated to the project. Governed by the fiscal sponsorship grant agreement, GROW uses the fund to disburse grants to the project. The project provides regular reports to document its activities and expenditures. Legally, the project is a separate entity from GROW. The project owns its own work product, and intellectual and tangible property. It hires and supervises its own staff, and is responsible for direct financial management. GROW assumes liability to the funding source (typically executing a grant agreement with the funder) that the work will be substantially carried out as described in the grant application.
