Name: The Aerospace Corporation

Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The corporation's primary customer is the Space and Missile Systems Center (SMC) of the Air Force Space Command. The corporation fulfills the functions of an architect-engineer for space systems. It assists with engineering tasks required to develop space systems, from initial concept and design to deployment and operation. Progress is monitored, alternatives and tests are analyzed, and problems are resolved in cooperation with industrial contractors and government laboratories. Aerospace laboratory research is directed toward advancements in military space systems, engineering feasibility studies of new system concepts, anomaly resolution, and analyses and forecast of domestic and foreign technologies. In fulfilling this architect-engineer role, Aerospace strives to minimize system development and operational risks, which in turn protects acquisition schedules and aids in cost containment.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Aerospace Civil Systems Group supports customers in three primary areas NASA programs, NOAA (National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration) programs and commercial, international and Homeland Security programs The Civil Systems Group work enhances our mission assurance capabilities for our national security space customer, SMC

Additional Supplemental Information	The corporation maintains a corporate study assistance program and awards fellowships to qualified individuals who will contribute to the technical and business expertise of the corporation. Fellowships are normally awarded to regular full or part-time employees currently in good standing who have a minimum of two years employment with the corporation. The Aerospace University administers the Corporate Study Assistance Program. The number of fellowship awards each year depends on the availability of resources and the merit of the applications received. The Aerospace University advises management and employees on program guidelines, enrolls qualified candidates in the program, authorizes payments to universities and part-time fellows, and monitors compliance with this practice. A fellow in the Corporate Study Assistance Program submits appropriate receipts for actual incurred expenses, such as tuition, books, and mandatory fees to The Aerospace University for payment. Submits an official transcript to The Aerospace University within 60 days of the completion of each academic term. Reimburses the corporation for applicable tuition and textbook costs if the participant drops a course, receives a B-minus or less in any course, or receives less than satisfactory for dissertation research. Full-Time students receiving a stipend. Expend 20 or 24 hours of effort per workweek during the academic year and up to 40 hours during school recess and vacation periods. Pay is based on the employee's scheduled workweek. Annual reviews reflect both work and academic performance.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b Compensation Review and Approval Process for Officers and Key Employees	The Aerospace Corporation plays a critical role in assuring mission success for National Security Space programs, which are a $50 billion enterprise on an annual basis. Aerospace's senior executives are highly experienced leaders in their technical fields with enormous accountability in performing this vital mission assurance role. Their compensation is reviewed and approved annually by the corporation's Board of Trustees, whose members include leaders with experience in government, the military, and private industry. The Compensation and Personnel Committee (the "Committee") of the Board of Trustees (the "Board") discharges the Board's responsibilities relating to compensation of the President and CEO, and other executive officers, including approving, individually, the compensation of each such officer. The Committee reviews and recommends to the Board compensation plans, pension and benefit programs for employees generally, and to review all modifications to such plans other than such modifications specifically delegated by the Board to management from time to time. The Board of Trustees has established an annual bonus and incentive compensation plan for corporate officers and general managers based on corporate and individual goals established at the beginning of each fiscal year. At the end of each fiscal year, the Committee reviews corporate and individual performance and recommends to the Board the amount of bonus and incentive compensation, if any, to be paid for the prior year's performance. Bonus payments must be approved by the Board. These amounts are included in Bonus & incentive compensation on Schedule J, Part II, column (B)(ii). The Committee reviews the Board of Trustees compensation. The Committee meets not less frequently than twice each year to coincide with the annual and semiannual meetings of the Board and at other times to coincide with regular meetings of the board. The Committee may request that members of management or outside consultants and advisors of the Committee be present to assist the Committee in performing its duties. A written report of the actions taken at each meeting will be kept filed with the proceedings of the meetings of the full Board. The Committee process above was last undertaken for Fiscal Year 2017.
