Part XV, Line 2d: Any award restrictions or limitations

The J.M. Rubin Foundation, Inc. is a Florida not-for-profit charitable corporation established in 1973. It has been approved by the Internal Revenue Service to make individual scholarship grants to recipients who must be bona fide residents of Palm Beach County, Florida. In addition, all applicants must be U.S. citizens. The scholarship recipients need not attend any particular school, so long as the recipient is a candidate for certification or degree. The recipients will be selected on the basis of academic and/or athletic achievement or promise as the basic criterion. Financial need is an additional factor, however, it is not required.

The recipients will be selected from applicants on an objective and See Additional Information nondiscriminatory basis, including personal interviews, if deemed necessary. Each scholarship will be paid directly to the educational institution for the use of the recipient. Each educational institution must agree in writing to use the grant funds to defray the recipients expenses or pay the funds to the recipient only if he or she is enrolled at such institution and his or her standing is consistent with the purpose and condition of the grant. No part of the grant may be used as payment for teaching, research, or other services by the recipient. No grants will be awarded to the officers, directors or members of the board of trustees of the Foundation, to their families, or to any other disqualified person.
