Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2; Part III, column (b); and any other additional information.

1. The Foundation has established a committee to select winners based on written criteria posted on the website. The funds are intended to be used for aiding the recipient's college expenses. Once the award is granted, the Foundation does not make further inquiries as to how the funds are actually spent.
2. The Foundation grants monies to the Special Education Departments at the two local High Schools to defer the cost of their Spring Learning Trip. All monies are used to benefit students directly. We do this because these students generally demonstrate love of learning and hard work, but would not qualify for one of our traditional scholarships.
3. The Foundation, with the help of the Elementary and Junior High Schools, grant monies to recognize elementary age students who demonstrate love of learning, hard work, or commitment to community. We believe that students who demonstrate these characteristics at a young age will become candidates for our scholarships when they are in High School.
