Return Reference	Explanation
Political Activities	During 2018, the US Congress considered several bills that would have a positive impact on providing funding for research into rare diseases and on providing services for the needs of children with disabilities. In support of this legislation, Society board members contacted legislative offices by phone, mail, and personal visits and provided such information to Society members via newsletters and email. Such legislation is of direct interest to the Society and its members. Such activities represent an insubstantial part of its total efforts. The total funds expended on these activities is less than 1% of the society's total revenue.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
SCHEDULE D, PART X, LINE 2	The society has adopted the provisions of ASC-740-10, accounting for uncertainty in income taxes. The society recognizes the tax (benefit) expense from uncertain tax positions only if it is more likely than not that the tax positions will be sustained on examination by the tax authorities, based on the technical merits of the positions. Any such tax (benefit) expense is measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. The society had no unrecognized tax benefits at December 31, 2018. The society files an exempt organization return with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). It is not a "private foundation" for tax purposes. The society had no unrelated taxable business income for the year ended December 31, 2018. Accordingly, a provision for income taxes has not been established in the accompanying financial statements.
