Also complete this part to provide any additional information. See instructions.

Part 1, Line 2 :

For grant applicants the Foundation reviews the following information:

(a) Confirmation of non-profit status , (b) Budgets and budget assumptions for the project for which grant funds are being applied

(c) Audited statements (d) Valid tax certifications (e) References

All grants are approved by the Foundation Council and the grantee is required to sign a grant letter confirming the terms for the grant.

All applicants whose projects are approved must provide a detailed work plan which is submitted to the relevant project manager

For large strategic grants there is also a Kick-Off meeting(s) wherein the Foundation and the Grantee go over the whole process and ensure that expectations and plans are coordinated and reconciled

Grant payments are subject to detailed progress and financial reports .

If interim reports are unsatisfactory, investigation is commenced and/or future grant funding is suspended.

On completion of each project the grantee is required to submit a final report .
